We are proud to celebrate over 100 years as a Premier Private Dining Club

All membership categories are open for new members;

Intermediate, Regular and Corporate

As the Club celebrates its successful past with excitement for our future, we are pleased to extend, as our gift to you, a

$200 credit to your Food and Beverage account

The promotional credit will be applied to your account upon completion of the membership meeting and the Board of Directors approval.

We are confident you will enjoy our rustic charm along with our vast assortment of delicious food, genuine service and Club events. We are committed to maintaining the HRC traditions that began with our founders, Eugene and Rhoda Rennard, over one hundred years ago. Join us as we continue the Rennard's vision of generating sincere friendships in the comfortable private setting the HRC Club provides.

Please contact Laura Fox, General Manager, if you have any questions or concerns.

If you wish to attend, please reserve 48 hours in advance of the date you select.
